JOHN W. ENGLISH . . . to speak

ROTARY GOVERNOR TO VISIT

John W. English, governor of district 160-A Rotary International, will visit the Torrance Rotary club where he will discuss the club program for the year, according to A. E. (Tommy) Thompson, president of the local club.

He will speak to the Rotary board October 25 and then address the club October 27.

English has been a Rotarian since 1935 with the Santa Monica club. In 1948 he was named district assembly manager; in 1953, district conference manager; and last year club service chairman for the district.

English was born in McDonald, Pennsylvania. He has been in the property management and investment field since obtaining his liberal arts and law degrees from USC in 1926.

Volunteer's Orientation Meeting Set

An orientation period for all members of the Volunteers for Children of Harbor General hospital has been scheduled from 7 to 3 p.m. on Friday, October 21 at the hospital. It was announced by Mrs. John H. Stoddard, chairman.

A business meeting, which requires the attendance of all members, will be held at the hospital on Wednesday, October 26, at 7:30 p.m., for the purpose of further organization.
